POSTPONEMENT OF SALE UNTIL, THURSDAY, THE 22ND OF AUGUST.

NOTICE.

I VERY MUCH REGRET THE NECESSITY OF DEFERRING THE SALE OF
MY RAMBLINGS IN THE ELUCIDATION
OF
THE AUTOGRAPH OF MILTON, until the above-mentioned date, when
THE IMPRESSION FOR SALE, SIX HUNDRED AND TWENTY-FIVE COPIES, WILL BE OFFERED BY PUBLIC AUCTION,
at 13, WELLINGTON STREET, STRAND,
BY MY PARTNER, MR. JOHN WILKINSON.

I much regret also, that I am under the necessity of announcing that the Work cannot be Sold under the sum of THREE GUINEAS in lieu of £2. 12s. 6d. as I had stated. But it must be borne in mind, that since I first announced it, I have been induced to add considerably to my estimate of its cost. First, by giving TWO PHOTOGRAPH PORTRAITS of MILTON,—portraits little known and never before satisfactorily executed—the one, from the only Bust of the Poet taken from the life, and the other, from the Crayon Drawing in the possession of William Baker, Esq. of Bayfordbury. Those Photographs are from the studios of Mr. Mayland, of Cambridge, and also of Messrs. Caldesi and Blandford, of London. Secondly, by the ADDITION of TWO BEAUTIFUL DESIGNS by J. L. TUPPER, of PARADISE LOST and PARADISE REGAINED, which Designs will form, as it were, a picture on the outer covers of the binding; and, Lastly, ALL THE COPIES WILL BE EXTRA HALF BOUND in MOROCCO, which alone will cost considerably ABOVE FOUR HUNDRED POUNDS. Yet, withal, I do not despair of learning on the Evening of Thursday, August 1, that, like the PRINCIPIA TYPOGRAPHICA, all the copies were sold; the more so, because I conscientiously feel that, unless the work had been done, con amore, it could not have been issued at any thing like the price of £3. 3s.

AGAIN, I cannot allow the work to be sold without those most praiseworthy institutions,

“THE BOOKSELLERS’ PROVIDENT SOCIETY AND RETREAT,”

“THE LITERARY FUND,” “THE PRINTERS’ PROVIDENT SOCIETY,”
and

deriving, as has been promised, the pecuniary benefit anticipated by its sale; my desire, not being to put “money in my purse” by my literary pursuits. I am content with the emoluments of my House of Business; and feel, that though my health (after thirty-five years work) requires me to reside for many months yearly at this distance from London,—comparatively with former days, no more than twenty miles,—the OLD FIRM of BAKER, LEIGH and SOTHEBY, commencing in 1744, for the DISPOSAL by PUBLIC AUCTION of LIBRARIES, CABINET PICTURES, DRAWINGS, ENGRAVINGS, COINS and MEDALS, ANTIQUITIES, ARTICLES OF VIRTU, OLD CHINA, CURIOSITIES, and all PROPERTY connected with LITERATURE and the FINE ARTS, will continue to receive the kind support of the Public under the valuable Managerial Aid of my Partner, Mr. WILKINSON, and an able STAFF in the several Departments of the Business.

The MILTON WORK is in imperial 4to., consisting of nearly three hundred pages of Text, and is illustrated with TWENTY-SEVEN FOLIO PLATES, of which there are TEN PLATES of FACSIMILES from the AUTOGRAPH POEMS OF MILTON, preserved in the Library of Trinity College, Cambridge, including the first page of “Arcades,” “Comus,” “Lycidas,” “First Design of Paradise Lost,” “Designs of British Tragedies,” two pages; “Sonnets,” &c.; numerous other plates of Autograph Documents in the Bodleian Library, Oxford; the State Paper Office; the British Museum, and many other sources, including above Eighteen Specimens by the

PROCESSES OF THE ELECTRO PRINTING BLOCK COMPANY.

The work will close with BRIEF BIOGRAPHICAL NOTICES OF EMINENT PERSONS who have received HONOURS from the SOVEREIGNS OF ENGLAND for their ATTAINMENTS IN LITERATURE, SCIENCE and ART, during the period 1660 to 1861.

A SPECIMEN COPY OF THE WORK may be NOW SEEN in Wellington Street, Strand, until the day of Sale. Commissions for copies can be sent to any of the London Booksellers, or to No. 13, Wellington Street, Strand.
